

RULES OF THE CLYDESDALE HORSE SOCIETY OF NEW ZEALAND (INCORPORATED)

- 1.The name of the Society is “The Clydesdale Horse Society of New Zealand Incorporated.”
- 2.The Registered Office of the Society will be situated at such place in New Zealand as the Council may from time to time appoint.
- 3.The objects for which the Society is established are:

OBJECTS

- 1.To maintain unimpaired the purity of the breed of horses, known as Clydesdale Horses, and to promote the breeding of these horses free from hereditary unsoundness as far as is practically possible.
- 2.To collect, verify, preserve and publish the pedigrees of the said horses and other useful information relating to them.
- 3.To promote the general interests of the breeders and owners of the said horses.
- 4.To investigate suspicious or doubtful pedigrees of the said horses and other alleged misrepresentations relating to them, and to publish the results of such investigations.
- 5.To purchase, take on lease, hire and otherwise acquire for the Society, houses, lands, goods, chattels and effects, and to sell, let, and otherwise dispose of the same.
- 6.To make by-laws for conducting the business and regulating the proceedings of the Society, and to enforce the same by fines or otherwise, provided the Registrar of the Incorporated Societies consents thereto in so far as his consent may be necessary.
- 7.To institute enquiries and to prosecute or defend legal or other proceedings relating to the said horses or to the Society.
- 8.To offer and grant prizes and premiums, and otherwise expend its funds in any such way as may be conducive to the advancement and improvement of the said breed of horses.
- 9.To raise and manage funds, and generally to do all things which may be conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

4.The income and property of the Society, from whatever source derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion and furtherance of the objects of the Society, and no part thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to the persons who at any time are or have been Members of the Society, or any person claiming through any of them. Provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment in good faith of remuneration to any secretary, editor, officer, clerk, or servant of the Society, or to any member of the Society or other person, in return for any services actually rendered to the Society or prevent the borrowing of money by the Society from any Member thereof.

5.If upon the winding-up or dissolution of the Society there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the Society, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the Society to be determined by two thirds of the Members of the Society present at a meeting convened for the purpose at or before the time of dissolution, or in default thereof, by such Judge of the High Court of New Zealand as may have or acquire jurisdiction in the matter.

6. Any person taking an interest in Clydesdale Horses may become a member of the Society who, having signified to the Council in writing, through a Member of the Society, his/her desire to become a Member, shall be approved by the Council and entered on the Register of Members. Any Member who shall have paid the subscriptions and other moneys which may have become due to him, including subscriptions due in advance, may at any time retire from membership on giving three month's written notice to that effect to the Council, or the Secretary for the time being; but unless such notice is given on or before the 1st day of December in any year, the retiring Member shall, if an Annual Member, pay notwithstanding his retirement, the annual subscription of the then ensuing year. Persons resident in New Zealand may be either Life Members, or Annual Members but persons not resident in New Zealand may be Life Members only. Annual Members ceasing to reside in New Zealand shall become Life Members or shall retire from the Society. Every Annual Member shall pay annually a subscription in advance as shall be decided from time to time by the AGM. Life Members upon entrance shall pay a subscription as decided from time to time by the AGM. No Member shall be entitled to any of the privileges of membership while his/her subscription is in arrears, or other moneys due from him/her to the Society remain unpaid.

7. The Council may at any time elect as an honorary member of the Society any person who they consider has advanced, or is likely to advance, the objects of the Society. Honorary Members shall not be required to make any payments, and they shall not be eligible to hold office or to vote at any meeting of the Society.

8. Any Member who shall fail in the observance of any rule, regulation, or by-law made by the Council of the Society, or whose conduct in any respect shall be, in the opinion of the Council, derogatory to the character or prejudicial to the interests of the Society may be removed from the Society by the Council, by a resolution to that effect passed by a majority of at least two-thirds of the Members of the Council, present and voting at a Special Council Meeting, of which not less than twenty eight day's previous notice, specifying the intention to propose such resolutions shall have been sent to all Members of the Council, and at which not less than ten members of the Council, exclusive of the Member whose removal is in question, if he/she happens to be a Member of the Council shall be present.

9. It shall be competent to any person who has been a Member of the Society, but who has been removed there from by the Council under the powers to that effect in the Rules of the Society to apply to the Council to be reinstated as a Member, and the following rules shall apply:

(a) Upon the receipt of such application the same shall be laid before the Council and shall in the first instance be referred to a Committee of Council to be appointed for the purpose, and such Committee shall investigate the circumstances and report thereon.

(b) The report of such Committee shall be laid before a Special Meeting of the Council for consideration of which meeting not less than twenty-eight day's previous notice shall be given and such notice shall specify the purpose for which the meeting is convened.

(c) It shall be competent for such meeting of Council to reinstate such applicant as a Member of the Society provided that such Resolution is passed by a majority of at least two-thirds of the Members of the Council present and voting at the meeting, and that not less than ten members of the Council shall be present thereat.

(d) Such re-instated Member shall not be liable to pay a further subscription, if a Life Member, or arrears of annual subscription for the period during which his name did not appear on the Roll of Members, if an Annual Member.

(e) Should the Council resolve not to re-instate a Member applying for re-instatement it shall not be competent for the applicant to submit another application for re-instatement until a period of at least two years has elapsed from the date of his former application.

OFFICE BEARERS

10. The Office-bearers of the Society shall be a President, one Vice President, resident in the North Island, one Vice-President resident in the South Island, and Honorary Treasurer, and a Secretary/Treasurer, all of whom, except the Secretary, must be Members of the Society.

11. At each Annual General Meeting the Society shall elect a President and two Vice-Presidents, who shall hold office for one year. The President and Vice-Presidents shall be selected from the Councillors for the time being.

12. A retiring President, Vice-President, or Councillor shall in all cases be eligible for re-election.

13. The Affairs of the Society shall be managed by a Council which shall consist of fifteen Councillors, to be elected as hereinafter prescribe. No persons shall be eligible for election as a Councillor who is not at the time of election a member of the Society. The President of the Society for the time being shall be ex officio a member of all Committees of the Council.

14. At the Annual General Meeting five of the members of the Council shall retire from office. The members to retire in each year shall be members who have been longest in office since their last election.

15. For the purpose of facilitating the election of Councillors and for securing the due representation of the various districts in which the members reside, New Zealand shall be divided into two districts consisting respectively of the North Island and the South Island of New Zealand or into such other number of districts as the Council shall from time to time determine.

16. With regard to Councillors and the President the mode of their election shall be as follows: A member may propose the name of any member or members for election as President or Councillor by submitting the same to the Secretary no less than thirty-six days before the Annual General Meeting. Names so submitted shall be included on the list printed on the voting papers. The council shall with the notice convening the Annual General Meeting send to every member the list containing the names of the five retiring members of the Council and such other names as may have been proposed for election and also the names of any person or persons duly nominated for President such names to be printed in a form of voting paper to be approved of by the Council. Such voting paper shall be completed and returned to the Secretary by a date fixed by council and must retain as to votes for councillors neither more or less than five uncanceled names and as to the vote for President only one uncanceled name and the Council shall appoint two Scrutineers to inspect the votes and report in writing to the Meeting the names of the five persons having the highest number of votes for Council and the person having the highest number of votes for President. Such persons shall then be declared elected by the Chairman of the meeting after which the voting list shall be forthwith destroyed by the Scrutineers.

In the case of equality of votes the names of both the candidates who have an equal number of votes shall be submitted to the meeting and a second ballot shall be taken at the meeting.

17. Any vacancies which may occur in the office of President or Vice-President or in the Council between the Annual General meetings may be filled up by the Council. But any person so elected by the Council shall retain his office only so long as the member in whose place he is appointed would have retained it if no vacancy had occurred.

18. Any councillor absent from three consecutive meetings, with or without an apology or leave of absence, shall lose his seat on this Council.

19. The Council shall be deemed to be duly constituted and shall continue to possess all the powers hereby conferred notwithstanding any vacancies in its body but such vacancies shall be filled as soon as possible in the judgement of the Council and expedient in the manner pointed out in the preceding paragraph.

20. Meeting of the Council shall be held at the places and on the dates appointed by the Council and notice of such meeting to be sent to all Councillors not less than twenty eight days before the date appointed for that meeting.

21. The quorum of the Council shall be six.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF COUNCIL

22. The Council shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the Society and shall have power to do all such things as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Society.

23. It is however hereby expressly declared (by the way of amplification and not in limitation of the general powers and duties conferred or implied by or in the last preceding article) that the Council shall have and may exercise and perform the following powers and duties Viz:

(a) They may from time to time convene and hold General meetings of the Society.

(b) They may from time to time frame, make, alter, and rescind by-laws not repugnant to the rules or to "The Incorporated Societies Act 1908" and all regulations made by the Council and orders given by them shall be binding on every member until set aside by a General Meeting.

(c) They may delegate any of their powers or duties (except the appointment and removal of members of their body and of the Society) to committees of any number of members of their body.

(d) They may acquire for the Society any pedigrees or publications with the copyright therein respectively (if any) the possession of which they may deem likely to be in any way advantageous to the Society and may establish any new publications devoted to or bearing upon any object of the Society provided that the copyright of every publication acquired or established by or on behalf of the Society shall be vested in the Council or in Trustees to be nominated by them for the benefits of the Society.

(e) They may enter into any contract with the Printers or Publishers of any publication acquired by the Society that may be subsisting at the date of such acquisition and may enter into and make any new or altered contracts or arrangements with the same or any other Printers or Publishers for the printing, publishing, distribution, sale or management of any such acquired publication or of any publication whatsoever of the Society.

(f) They may from time to time regulate the nature, form, and contents of, and also the terms and conditions as to entries in, and also the time and mode and terms of issue of any publications of the Society and all arrangements and details connected therewith and in particular they shall have power (so far as they may not be fettered by any subsisting contract engagement) from time to time to fix and alter the price of any publication of the society and the charges to be levied for the insertion therein of entries relating to Clydesdale Horses and other matters.

(g) They may accept annual or other subscriptions of money from Members of the Society or any other persons in payment for any publication of the Society and they make arrangements for supplying any such publication to any member or other person during his life or for any other period on the terms or receiving a lump sum of money in advance or on such other terms as they may think fit.

(h) They may purchase, hire or take on lease for the purposes of the Society any houses, land, goods, chattels or effects and they may sell, let or dispose of the property of the Society when and as they may think fit.

(i) They may at their discretion and upon such terms as they may think fit institute, conduct, compromise, refer to arbitration and abandon any legal equitable or criminal proceedings against any person or persons whomsoever and may at the like discretion, defend, compromise, refer to arbitration and abandon any legal equitable or criminal proceedings brought against the Council or the Society or any Member, Officer, Printer, or Publisher of or other person employed by or connected with the Society in all cases in which such proceedings may be connected in any way with the property or affairs of the Society or may be deemed by the Council calculated to further the objects of the Society; and may at the like discretion compound, refer to arbitration and settle all claims and demands upon the Society; the Council or any person employed by or connected with the Society; and may at the like discretion pay out of the funds of the Society all claims and demands against the Society and also all claims and demands, damages and expenses which may arise out of or be incidental to any such proceedings as aforesaid and that whether the council or the Society shall or shall not be primarily or directly liable for the same.

(j) They may from time to time appoint, employ and remove a Secretary or Secretaries of the Society also any Editor or Editors or any publication of the Society also any Treasurer or Treasurers and any other office, clerk and servants at such salaries and wages respectively and with such respective duties and spheres of employment and generally upon such terms as they may think fit.

(k) They may borrow money for the purpose of the Society and may give security for any such moneys upon any property of the Society.

(l) They may place any moneys of the Society not required for immediate use upon deposit at interest with some bank and they may invest any such moneys either in their names or in the names of any two or more members to be appointed by them for the purpose upon such security (not being personal security) as they may select with power to vary or realise any such investment when and as they shall think fit.

24. The funds of the Society shall be applied as follows, namely:

(a) In payment of the current expenses and other disbursements of the Council in the conduct of the business of the Society or in relation thereto.

(b) In payment of the salaries and wages of the Secretary or Secretaries, Editor or Editors, and other officers, clerks and servants for the time being of the Society.

(c) In defraying all expenses of or connected with, the printing, publications, sale and distribution of the publications of the Society.

(d) In paying the purchase-money or rent of any lands purchased or hired by the Society, or any repairs or other outgoings in respect of such lands, and in paying for any other property acquired by the Society.

(e) In payment of the interest and repayment of the principal of any moneys borrowed by the Society, or in constituting a reserve fund to meet future contingencies or in reducing the price charged for any publication of the Society, or in payment of claims, demands, damages and expenses mentioned in the preceding Article or generally upon or for any object or purpose expressly or impliedly covered by these rules; but the Council shall have the power from time to time to vary the application of the funds of the Society, in such manner as they shall think fit.

MEETINGS

25. The Council shall convene and hold an Annual General Meeting of the Society on such date as they shall from time to time appoint.

26. The Annual General Meeting shall be held in the North Island and the South Island alternatively in each successive year at such place as shall be determined by the Council.

27. Not less than twenty-eight days' previous notice of every General Meeting and of the business to be transacted thereat shall be sent to every Member. After the business of which notice has been given has been dealt with, any other business which may be proper to or founded upon the business of the Annual General Meeting shall be transacted.

28. At every Annual General Meeting an Accountant or Accounting firm shall be appointed for the ensuing year. The Accountant or Accounting firm shall review the accounts of the Society prior to the Annual General Meeting succeeding their appointment; and a statement showing the financial position of the Society, and review by the Accountant or Accounting firm shall be laid before every Annual General Meeting and shall be considered by the members at such meeting.

29. Any meeting may be adjourned as the Members present there at shall resolve.

30. The President of the Society, or in his absence any Vice-President or other Member elected for the purpose by the members present, shall take the Chair at all General Meetings.

31. All questions and matters brought before General Meetings shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the Members in accordance with these rules (each Member having one vote) and in the case of an equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote, in addition to his vote as a Member.

32. Three Members personally present shall be a quorum for a General Meeting for the adjournment of the Meeting. For all other purposes the quorum for a General Meeting shall be nine members personally present. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the quorum requisite be present at the commencement of the business.

33. Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands, and in the case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall, both on a show of hand and at the poll, have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he/she shall be entitled as a Member.

34. The minute books of the Society shall be open to the inspection of the Members at all reasonable times.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

35. On a show of hands every Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote.

36. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

37. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or his Attorney, or if such appointer is a Corporation, under the hand of the Chairman of Directors, or Managing Director, or Manager or Attorney of such Corporation. No person shall be appointed a Proxy who is not a Member of the Society and qualified to vote, but a Corporation, being a Member of the Society, may appoint any one of its officers to be its proxy.

38. An instrument appointing a proxy and power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed shall be handed to the Secretary, or the person acting as Secretary, at the notified place of the meeting not less than half an hour before the time for holding the meeting, or adjourned meeting as the case may be, at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.

PECUNIARY GAIN

39. "Pecuniary Gain" does not include the winning of trophies or prizes nor does it include prize-money when such money is paid to the Society

COMMON SEAL

40. The Society shall have a Common Seal which shall be kept in the custody of such person or persons as the Council shall from time to time appoint and a resolution of the Council directing the Common Seal to be affixed to any deed or other document shall be a sufficient authority and indemnity to any person or persons affixing the common Seal pursuant to such direction.

ALTERATION OF RULES

41. Any rule of the Society may be repealed or altered or new rules added by a majority of two-thirds of the members present at a General Meeting. Thirty-six days' notice of the intention to propose any alteration or new rule must be given to the Secretary by notice to that effect. No rule is valid until accepted by the Registrar.

41. (a) No addition to, or alteration the the Pecuniary Profit Clause or the Winding Up Clause shall be approved without the Inland Revenue Department's approval.

NOTICES

42. A notice may be served by or on behalf of the Society upon a member, either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter. Addressed to the member at his registered place of abode, and any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served when the letter containing the same was posted, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was addressed as aforesaid, and put into the Post Office.

THE CLYDESDALE HORSE SOCIETY OF NEW ZEALAND (INCORPORATED) GENERAL RULES

DOCUMENTATION AND CORRESPONDENCE

1. In matters where forms are required, the Society's official forms are to be used. Particulars are to be written in a clear and legible manner, using the English alphabet, and must be forwarded directly to the Secretary, together with the prescribed fees.

2. All forms and correspondence when lodged become the property of the Council, and are received subject to the decision of the Council, to whom is reserved the full right to investigate, amend or alter, and to publish in the original or in the amended or altered form, or not to publish, any or every pedigree presented for entry; and no pedigree lodged with the Council can thereafter be withdrawn or altered by the entrant or other person, except by the written authority of the Council.

ENTRIES

3. Any stallion, colt, mare or filly in New Zealand may be registered for entry in the Stud Book if got by an entered (numbered) sire from an entered (numbered) dam, provided the entries of both the sire and dam are made with The Clydesdale Horse Society of New Zealand Incorporated.
4. Entries for the Stud Book will only be received from financial members of the Society.
5. The onus shall rest on the entrant in all cases of satisfying the Council of the undoubted purity of all animals submitted for registration.
6. The Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may be sustained by any one through inaccuracy, omission, or alteration of any entry.
7. The name and address of the breeder of every animal whose pedigree is sent for entry must be stated on the entry form.
8. Where the mating breeder and the foaling breeder are not the same, a form of Certificate of Service from the mating breeder must accompany the entry form. The entry form with fees is to be submitted by the foaling breeder.
9. A foal is considered to belong to the dam and is to be entered under the name of the owner of the dam or the name of a registered lessee. A foal cannot be entered under the name of a casual borrower of the dam.
10. For each animal born after 1st August, being the progeny of registered (numbered) Clydesdale parents, official application for registration must be received by 31st July of that breeding season. Failure to comply with this regulation shall incur a penalty fee of double that of the registration fee, in addition to the registration fee in respect of each animal, providing application is lodged within the following breeding season.
 - (a) Each such application shall be accompanied by a Certificate of Service if the breeder is not the owner of the sire.
 - (b) If a certificate of service and or stallion return is not provided to the society by 30th April of that breeding season, parentage is to be determined by three way DNA identification (including progeny, sire and dam). All associated costs shall be borne by the applicant.
 - (c) After 24 months post foaling season, parentage is to be determined by three way DNA identification (including progeny, sire and dam). All associated costs shall be borne by the applicant.
 - (d) After 36 months, post foaling season, an animal shall be ineligible for registration unless meeting the requirements in (c) and approved by council.
11. The name and address of the breeder of every animal whose pedigree is sent for entry must be stated on the entry form.
12. The progeny of Artificial Insemination and Embryo Transfer will be accepted by the Society as per the following:
 - (a) All rules and regulations pertaining to eligibility shall apply to the registration of animals conceived in New Zealand by artificial insemination and or embryo transfer.
 - (b) The prescribed forms are completed and lodged with the secretary.
 - (c) The Society is furnished with adequate notification of the procedure by 30th April of that breeding season.
 - (d) DNA typing of the stallion, mare and progeny is carried out and provided to the Society with the registration application. All associated costs shall be borne by the applicant.
 - (e) All eligible progeny born as the result of Artificial Insemination or Embryo Transfer will be indicated on the registration certificate and studbook as AI or ET respectively.
13. All deaths and castrations of registered animals shall be notified by 30 April year following.

PREFIXES, SUFFIXES AND NAMES

14. Every breeder must register a separate stud name, of not more than two words and shall not exceed 16 characters, for use exclusively as a prefix to the names of animals bred by them. The final granting of any application for the registration of a stud name shall rest with the Council, which will, as far as possible, safeguard stud names registered with the Clydesdale Horse Societies of Great Britain and Ireland, and Australia.

15. An animal's name shall not exceed 36 characters, including the breeder's prefix, which must be used and no stud prefix other than the breeder's will be permitted as any portion of the name. Names, once registered, cannot afterwards be changed.

16. The use of the words "The" or "Young" as prefixes for mares or stallions, or of numeral for stallions, will not be permitted.

17. No animal may be registered in a name that has previously been applied to or used for with the same prefix.

STALLION RETURN

18. A return of entered mares covered by an entered stallion is to be submitted by each stallion owner to the Secretary before the 30 April each year. Non-compliance with this rule will render the stallion owner liable to a fine as specified in the society's fee schedule for each failed return.

BRANDING

19. If born in New Zealand after 1st August, 1989, be branded within twelve months of foaling or when sold, whichever is sooner. The Secretary is to maintain and publish a register of brands for breeders at no fee. Brands must be able to be described in words. The method to be used is either freeze or fire branding on one or both shoulders using the stud brand as registered with the Secretary and a sequential number in order of each season's foaling over the last digit of the year of the decade.

20. In the case of horses that have been branded for identification all such brand marks are to be shown by drawing on the Application for Registration of Stud Book Entry form. The brand marks will then be recorded on the Registration of Entry Certificate as issued by the Society.

TRANSFERS OF OWNERSHIP

21. No application for registration of transfer will be granted unless the animal being transferred has been registered for entry.

22. The Application for Registration of Transfer form must be signed by the vendor, or an executor in the case of an estate.

23. In the case of an in-foal mare, it must be stated on the transfer form or export certificate the name and number of the stallion and date of service, and signed by the owner of the stallion, or a completed form of Certificate of Service attached to the form or certificate. Non-compliance with this rule will render the vendor liable to a penalty as specified in the society's fee schedule.

IMPORTS

24. Stallions and mares bred overseas and registered in Stud Books including the Clydesdale Stud Book of Great Britain and Ireland, must be proved to possess four (4) pure crosses of "Clydesdale breeding" (that is to say, their sire, the sire of their dam, the sire of their second dam, the sire of their third dam, be of "Clydesdale breeding" as defined in the following paragraph).

25. The term "Clydesdale breeding" means a stallion or mare entered in the New Zealand Clydesdale Stud Book, or in Volumes 6, 7 and 8 of the New Zealand Draught Horse Stud Book, or Volume 1 of the Australian Clydesdale Stud Book, or entered as a Clydesdale in Volumes 1. – X. of the Draught Horse Stud Book of Australia, or bred in Great Britain, Ireland or Australia and registered in the Clydesdale Stud Book of Great Britain and Ireland or the Commonwealth Clydesdale Book.

26. To entitle an imported animal to entry in the New Zealand Stud Book, the original export certificate must be received by the Secretary direct from the Clydesdale Horse society, or other Society governing the registration of Clydesdales in the country from which the animal is exported to New Zealand. The New Zealand Importer is to notify the Secretary and pay the same fee as within the scale and time frames as for transfers in New Zealand. Confirmation will be made with the overseas Society.

EXPORTS

27. For the purpose of identification, a full description on the Society's export form including name, age, colour, brands and accurate description of white markings, names of sire and dam, with the registered number of each animal is to be forwarded to the Secretary. The export form is to be submitted with a fee as specified in the society's fee schedule if within a period of three months of the date of export, or as specified in the society's fee schedule if submitted after a period of three months.

28. An Export Certificate will not be issued for an animal that has not been registered for entry in the Stud Book.

29. When the Export Certificate is completed and in order, the Secretary shall immediately forward it direct to the secretary of the Clydesdale Horse Society, or other authority controlling the registration of Clydesdales in the country to which the animal is being exported.

30. The Common Seal of the Society shall be affixed to each export certificate. Duplicate certificates will not be issued.

LEASES

31. Application for registration of lease agreements may be made for a minimum of 12 months on payment of a fee as specified in the society's fee schedule. The date of expiry of the lease is to be clearly stated; other terms and conditions are not required by the Society. Renewal of registration of leases may be made under the rulings as above. The form for applying for the registration of lease agreements is the same as for transfers. An annual list of lease registrations will be published.

32. It should be noted that horses subject to leases registered with this Society may be shown at Royal Agricultural Society affiliated shows in the lessee's name. Horses on casual loan cannot be shown at such shows other than in the bona fide owner's name.

SILVER MEDAL

33. The Society will provide a Silver Medal for a special class for the best yearling or two year old colt or filly bred by the exhibitor at each Royal Show. The medal will be engraved and forwarded by post by the Secretary after each Show and the award will be published to the members.

GOLD MEDAL

34. The Society will provide a Gold Medal to be awarded to the breeder who has bred and exhibited three different Champion mares at the two major shows, one in the North Island and one in the South Island as decided by council each year, since this medal was last won. The medal will be engraved by the Society and the award will be published to the members.

GELDING REGISTER

35. Upon the first change of ownership after castration, any gelding which has been entered as a colt or stallion may be transferred with the appropriate fee to a gelding register published in the next issue of the Stud Book. Subsequent changes of ownership will also be recorded in the appropriate issue of the Stud book following the same form, rules and scale of fees for transfers.

36. The layout of information in the Stud Book will show the name, number and Stud book volume of original entry as a colt or stallion. These will be followed by a number in brackets indicating the last of the Sequential number of owners, the date of transfer and the name and address of the current owner.

REPLACEMENT OF REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE

37. The secretary may provide a replacement registration certificate if the original certificate is lost, stolen or damaged, as long as the secretary has not been notified by previous owners of the deliberate withholding of the registration certificate and the owner of the registered Clydesdale has provided the following to the societies satisfaction.

- (a) They are the legal owner of the horse.
- (b) Pay a fee equal to half that of the registration fee.
- (c) Provide clear photos of all brands, near side and off side of horse, front aspect and hind aspect must be included as to identify the horse.
- (d) If brands are not clearly visible then the horse must be identified by microchip registered with the society or DNA. All associated costs shall be borne by the applicant.
